

Annie Williams (maw3as@virginia.edu)

DS 5001

2 May 2021

Provenance: These files came from Project Gutenberg, a library of over 60,000 free eBooks.

The text was downloaded from the following Project Gutenberg pages:

George Chapman Translations:

- Iliad - <https://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/51355>
- Odyssey - <https://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/48895>

Samuel Butler Translations:

- Iliad - <https://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/2199>
- Odyssey - <https://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/1727>

Location: <https://virginia.box.com/s/8q9j7zk0jww2z00pkgzptexga1lvhoxw>

Description: The corpus contains two different translations of Homer's Iliad and Odyssey. Both works are ancient Greek epic poems describing the Trojan war. The Iliad describes the events of the war itself, while the Odyssey follows the hero Odysseus after the war is over.

Format: All of the files were downloaded from Project Gutenberg as plaintext files. An internal structure is not applicable.